

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Worse yet, it will air items that will not be able to be substantiated as "truth" and therefore will leave open the possibility of every station that airs them to be sued, perhaps for Millions of dollars, and Sinclair itself, to be sued, not for millions, but for BILLIONS.....and, for that matter, for them, and the station owners to be imprisoned for committing a FELONY act. Using the public airwaves for a political reason and passing it off as a news item...which, according to my understanding, is a felony.
